Young Chauvet was a kind-hearted, generous young man and his death will be greatly regretted by the young people of this valley. His funeral took place Tuesday from his late home, the funeral services being conducted in St. Francis Church in this place by Rev. Father Whyte. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery in the presence of relatives and a large number of friends.

Naming the Baby.

A local wag, who is evidently aware that there is "a heap 'o trouble on de old man's mind" in regard to naming the latest addition to the editor's family, mailed us the following the other day:

In search, from A to Z, they passed,
And "Marguerite" "close at last,
But thought it would be more sweet
To call the baby "Marguerite."
When Grandma saw the little pet,
She called her "darling Margaret."
Next Uncle Jack and Cousin Aggie
Sent out and soon to "Little Maggie,"
And Grandpa the right must beg
To call the lassie "Bonnie Meg."
From "Marguerite" down to "Meg,"
And now she's simply "Little Peg."

SONOMA TURN VEREIN.

The Benefit Tendered the Juvenile Class a Great Success.

The entertainment and hop given by the Sonoma Turn Verein at Union Hall, last Thursday evening, for the benefit of its juvenile members brought out a large number of people and long before the curtain arose the large hall was crowded.

The horizontal bar and horse exercises by the 'Juvenile Class' reflected great credit on the pupils and their teacher Prof. Haderman. The youngsters, ten in number, were assisted by First Turnwort Spanning. The following members of the class took part in the exercises: Masters Johnny Laux, Jack Modini, Julius Poppe, Jr., Jas. Dorman, George Cornelius, Jr., Emil Cornelius, George Laux, Julius Fochetti, Jr., Roy Pauli and Guy Weems.

The pole drill and tableau by fourteen little girls won for them an encore. The exercises were enlivened by the singing of "Two Little Girls in Blue," by the entire class. The "Two Little Girls in Blue" were personated by Misses Gladys Small and Ruth Poppe, who looked real cute in their blue gowns.

Miss May Wood sang a solo which was well rendered. The young lady has a well trained voice which showed excellent cultivation.

"The Blacksmith's Story" was recited by Miss Clara Cheney, one of Sonoma's popular elocutionists, and as usual she received more than her share of the applause of the evening.

The comic Irish songs by Jas. B. Small brought down the house and he received three encores.

The entertainment concluded with a laughable farce entitled "Hotel Easy" in which Messrs. Wm. Wyatt, John Wilson and Jas. B. Small took part, and for a time the two latter made things quite lively on the stage over the possession of a room in that easy hotel.

In the contest for prizes, which were awarded to all the pupils, Geo. Cornelius, Jr. won first prize and Jas. Dorman carried off the second prize.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Poehlman, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gross, Mr. Jensen and Mr. B. Horn of Petaluma were present. Messrs. Gross and Horn acted as judges.

At the conclusion of the entertainment the floor was cleared and under the excellent management of Mr. Robt. Pasch dancing was indulged in until 2:30 o'clock.

To Contest the Law.

J. W. Gibson, Justice of the Peace-elect for Sonoma Township, residing at Glen Ellen, has filed an application in the Superior Court of this county, through his attorneys, Haskell & Meyer of Petaluma, to contest the validity of that part of the Purity of Election Act which compels a candidate to file with the County Clerk a statement of election expenses. Mr. Gibson sets forth in his petition that he failed to file such statement through inadvertence and excusable neglect and not by reason of want of good faith on his part. That he has been refused a certificate of election by the County Clerk because of such neglect, and he asks that a certificate be issued to him. The application will come up for a hearing before Judge Dougherty next Monday at 11 o'clock. A large number of successful candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constables, who were elected in the recent election and who are "in the same boat" with Jimmy and don't want to go up Salt River after being elected, will be affected by the decision.
